upon the British government has been to intensity its determination to settle the status of the volunteer fleet vessels. It is understood that the dispatch of the British cruisor. Verus to the Red Sea and a number of torpedo boats to Port Said is an exact of the government's intention to protect British commerce. No war-like instructions have been given the commanders, but the Venus will closely watch the procedure of the volunteer fleet vessels. Some diplomatic circles regard this as being in the nature of a threat to Russia, but the Russian diplothreat to Russia, but the Russian diplo mats in London express no concern.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23-3:45 P. M.—
The Associated Fress is able to announce that Russia has informally notified Great Britain that orders have been issued to the Russian cruisers in the Red Sea not to arrest any more merchantmen, and it has been agreed between the two powers that if, pending the receipt of these orders by the captains of St. Fetersburg and Smolensk, any other ships should be stopped and held as prizes, the acts shall be regarded as not having taken place and the ships concerned at once released. Although it was authoritatively stated yesterday that the Malacca had already reached Suda Bay, it now transpires that when the Malacca sailed from Port Said she was bound for Algiers. Unless orders are delivered to her on the way she will, upon arrival there, find an order to proceed immediately to Suda Bay, where, under the agreement reached between Great Britain, an examination of her cargo will be made by the Russian and British consuls.

The apparent delay in the delivery of orders to the captains of the St. Petersburg and Smolensk explains the seizure of the Scandia and the Ardov.

Great Britain having formally relied the question of the status of the St. Petersburg and Smolensk explains the seizure of the Scandia and the Ardov.

Great Britain, having formally relied the question of the status of the St. Petersburg and the Smolensk, the foreign office has called a meeting of leading officials of the admiralty to consider the subject. This conference is now in progress. The decision will be submitted to the Emperor for ratification.

GERMANS INDIGNANT. Trying to Keep Cool Over the Affair, But Find It Hard to Do So.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, July 23.—The Foreign Office is without official, information of the seizure of the Scandia, the only telegram received up to the present time being a telegram from the Hamburg-American received up to the present time being a telegram from the Hamburg-American Company, stating the facts and appealing for assistance. The Foreign Office thereupon cabled to the German consul at Port Said for an authentic version of the capture, and is awaiting his answer before making representations at $1. Peteraburs. The officials discuss the case with an evident attempt to keep cool, but they betray deep-seated indignation at Russia's course. Germany has no warships in the Red Saa, and the question of sending vessels there has not yet been considered, but the officials plainly intimate that this question must arise unless Russia speedily orders the captains of her volunteer fleet steamers to cease molesting German shipping.

The officials refer to the energotic language of the German press as fully justifiable. The seizure of the Sandia is regarded as being so excessively unreasonable that the captain of the Russian ship exceeded his instructions and that Russia will make speedy amends.

It is the intention of the packers to house these men inside the plants. Warehouses are being filled with permanent bunks and kitchens to accommadate a total of 5,550 men, who, it is claimed by the packers, will be inside the plants Monday morning. The strikers met at their various union headquarters during the niternoon an duight and listened to addresses by their leaders in which the general strike, which seems already a fixed programme for Monday, was the only abject discussed.

Chief O'Neill said to-night that the whole police force of Chicago would be at the call of the stock yards district Monday and that peace would be maintained at any price.

Although the strikers were greatly excited over the unsuccessful efforts to settle the strike, there was little violence throughout the district.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, July 23.—The strike situation at the packing plants was quiet to-day, the strikers making no efforts to molest new men applying for jobs. The employes now pass freely from the plants. It was learned to-day that the packers have in their employ two squads of old-time ranger cowboys from the plains, who are not accustomed to being molested.

New men were put to work to-day by the packers, and their killing operations were carried on on a larger scale than at any time since the heginning of the strike.

Strike leaders appeared to be somewhat disheartened on receipt of a telegram from Chicago late in the afternoon Saying that the committees to adjust the basis of seftement were further spart than ever.
